EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The classification adopted in this dictionary is as follows:—

- 1. The tribe.
- 2. The clan of the tribe.
- 3. The division of the clan.
- 4. The sub-division of the division.
- 5. The section of the sub-division.
- 6. Other minor fractions of the section.

The headings in the dictionary read from the lesser to the greater, thus;—Dado Khel are a minor fraction of the Dreplara section, of the Khusrogi sub-division, of the Nasruddin division, of the Zakka Khel clan, of the Afridi tribe.

Figures in brackets indicate the number of the fighting men of the fraction immediately preceding the figures.

The locality of the tribe, clan, or division, etc., is also given within brackets, where this is capable of accurate definition, and is not sufficiently indicated in the name of the tribe, clan, etc. In many cases the names of the headmen great Bangash tribe, and all the neighbouring tribes a to have joined one faction or the other; although the of the quarrel has been forgotten the division still remain

"Sunnis" and "Shiaus."—The vast majority of frontier tribesmen belong to the former sect; and this be assumed to be the case where not otherwise expestated.

"Hamsayas."—Vassal or dependent settlers, among alien tribe.

This dictionary only gives the Pathan or Pushtu-sing tribes within the Durand Line. Tribes, which Afghan subjects, are only mentioned, when the trib question dwells on both sides of the border, or when for reason we have political dealings with it. Also, within the administrative border under our rule are not most cases, given in full detail.

The distinction, made by Dr. Bellew, between Afand Pathan tribes is not observed in the dictionary, the was Afghan and Pathan, being taken as practically synony terms for the people who call themselves Pashtána Pakhtana), plural of Pashtun (or Pakhtun).

APPENDIX I.

- The following note by Captain A. H. McMahon, C.S.I., C.I.E., Political Agent, Dir, Swat and Chitral, explains the various spiritual titles and denominations in use among Pathans.
- "The denominations under which the descendants of all Muhammadan spiritual leaders come according to Pathan, and I might say Indian (usage), are, in order of spiritual rank, as follows:—
 - * 1. SAIYADS.—This is the term given to descendants of the Prophet.

 Owing to their large number and varying circumstances, it does not follow that a Saiyad, as such, is given precedence over other spiritual denominations, but a Saiyad who comes into prominence as a religious man takes precedence of all other religious denominations.
 - 2. Mians.—These are the descendants of saints and spiritual leaders who have acquired a wide reputation among many tribes, and have a merely local reputation. All Mians are, or are supposed to be, descendants of saints of some past century. The term is not given to descendants of modern saints, but some of these may in course of time become Mians. The remarks made regarding Saiyads apply to Mians also. The principal saints of this class on the northern frontier are ranked as follows:—
 - (1) Pir Baba of Ilai, Buner (as a Saiyad, he ranks first).
 - (2) Kaka Sahib of Nowshera.
 - (3) Hazrat Ji, near Attock.
 - (4) Mian Umar, at Chamkanni near Peshawar. He died childless, but his disciples have claimed the rank of Mians as if descendants.
 - (5) Haji Bahadur, of Kohat.
 - (6) Diwana Baba, of Buner.
 - Note.—(a) The Akhund of Swat does not as yet rank in this class. His descendants are given the title of Miangul by courtesy. They should, strictly speaking, be only Akhundzadas. If

^{*} SAIYADS. A true Saiyad is the descendant of Ali, the son-in-law of Muhammad, by Fatima, Muhammad's daughter. Many of the Pathan tribes such as the Bengash of Kobat and the Mishwanis of the Hagara the family keep up their spiritual record, which is doubtful, future descendants may in time be classed as Mians.

- (b) The Koreshis * are ranked as Mians.
- 3. AKHUNDZADAS.—Sometimes known also as Pirzadas. These are descendants of saints of merely local or tribal reputation. Thus we have Akundzadas of Khal (Dir), of Mayar (Jandol), of Bamboli (Adinzai, Swat), and so on. The descendants of "Mushki Alam" † are classed as Akhundzadas, because Mulla Mushki Alam was himself an Akhundzada, otherwise they would be only Sahibzadas.
- 4. Sahibzadas.—These are descendants of mullas who have gained a reputation for learning or sanctity. As such are classed the descendants of the Kotah Mulla, Manki Mulla, Adda Mulla, Karbogha Mulla, etc.

All of the above classes are, according to Pathan custom, entitled to grants of free land called Seri. The amount of land varies, as a general rule, according to the above-described ranks. Lands on the border between two villages, disputed lands, and lands which for some reason or other are difficult to hold, are generally given as Seri, as the religious status of their holders makes them useful buffers and enables them to enjoy disputed lands in peace."

t The religious and military leader of the Ghilzais in the 2nd Afghan War.

^{*} Koreshi or Qureshi is the name of the Arab tribe to which the Prophet belonged. The Koreshis of the Punjab are mostly descendants of Bahawal Hak, the renowned saint of Multan.
